

OUR FRAGILE PLANET

Birding 101: Tips for Bird Watching in Toronto

Tuesday, April 25th, 6:30pm-7:30pm

Birding is fun, easy, and can be done anywhere. Learn everything you need to know to get started, from choosing binoculars and field guides, to where and when to bird in your neighbourhood, and what birds you are likely to find in the city.

Presented by Monika Croydon, a local bird enthusiast and a member of the Toronto Ornithological Club as part of Toronto Public Library's Fragile Planet program series.

No registration required. Call 416-393-7680 for more details.

Palmerston Branch
560 Palmerston Ave
416-393-7680

Supported by:

TD Friends of the Environment
Foundation

torontopubliclibrary.ca